

Nursing 1001

History of Nursing
F. Nightingale

Day 1001
16-04-14

Infection control the most important problem of

L. Nightingale

P. Health

D.O.N.

The greatest invention is laundries -

She laundries etc.

She established cleanliness and sanitation rules.

Patients received special diets and plenty of food.

She improved water supply.

0900

Patients received proper nursing care.

Nightingale established a story of great repute.

RAFT

The story of a raft - De teacher -

Nightingale's '7' Basic tenets were:

1. Content of education defined by nurses.

2. Nurse educators are responsible for the

3. Care provided by students and graduates of the nursing program

3. Educators should be trained nurses themselves -

4. Nurses should be prepared with advanced